

Subject : English

Topic: A Question of Trust

Pre-Content/content Post-Content	Learning Outcome/Objectives
	General	Specific
Precontent Discuss about the importance of trust leading the class to further talk about the two idioms -Honour among thieves -A thief must be set to catch a thief	The students will be able to: -connect and respond to the theme of the chapter	The students will be able to: - understand the two idioms and explain them in their own words.
Content Comprehension Characterization Vocabulary Grammar	 -infer the main ideas of the text - analyse the qualities of the central characters - explore and use idioms -develop dialogue writing skills	 -analyse that crime never pays. -substantially answer factual, inferential, extrapolative and reference to context questions -highlight the lines which show Horace's anxiety. -spot the lines which highlight the lady's confidence -evaluate the qualities of Horace Danby and the mysterious lady to write the character sketch. -find various idioms related to crime or a criminal and use them in sentences - write the conversation based on the given situations
Post Content Create comic Strip

Home Work /Assignments: 1. . Read the lesson and complete the question –answers in notebook (Pages 10-12). 2. Do exercise in the workbook and complete Assignment Booklet pages.

MONTH: AUGUST

CLASS: X

Teacher's Activity	Students' Activity	Teacher's Observation and Remedial action taken
Teacher will • ask the introductory questions and initiate a discussion on the importance of trust and the two idioms. • explain the significant portions of the text and discuss the activities/ questions given in the textbook • guide the students to classify the character traits of Horace Danby and the woman in red. • restate the rules of reported speech.	Students will • take an active part in the discussion and share their thoughts with each other, and extend the discussion on the basis of the their own experience, imagination and assumptions • mention at which point in the story they realized that the lady was not what she said she was • list down the words/ phrases that tell about Horace's anxiety. • answer the questions orally and then attempt them in the notebook. (Pages 24-25 of Footprints without Feet) • elaborate on the qualities to write a description of the two characters. • write the dialogues, in groups, on the given situations to create comic strips. (Activity: Annexure A)	Teacher will write her observations after completion of the topic

Teaching Aids: blackboard, textbook/ e- book, worksheets, interactive board

Methodology/ innovative methods: reading, interactive discussion, brainstorming, dictionary work

Interdisciplinary Links: Psychology

Life skill/value education: Importance of human beings

H.O.D

Coordinator

Vice-Principal

Principal

Experiential Learning

Lesson: A Question Of Trust

Activity name	Comic Strip
Level	X
Skill	Imagination, creativity, dialogue writing
Time	40 minutes
Grouping of students	Group
Material	Colored pens and colored papers

Learning outcome: The students will be able to:

- develop dialogue writing skills
- improve presentation skills
- plan, organize and present ideas coherently by introducing, developing and concluding a topic.
- analyze the situation
- work collaboratively.

Teacher's activity: the teacher will:

- read and explain the story
- divide the class group wise into 8 members and assign a topic to each group

Students' activity: the students will:

- brainstorm on the given topic.
- think and write their dialogues.
- present their comic strips to the class

Stages:

- Setting up (giving instructions – guidelines, objectives, rules, time limit): 5 minutes
- Writing time: 20 minutes
- Presentation: 10 minutes
- Discussion and feedback: 5 minutes

Use the given situations to create your comic strips in 6 to 12 boxes.

- Group 1: A dialogue between Horace Danby and a fellow prisoner narrating the experience
- Group 2: A dialogue between two ladies in Danby's neighborhood after they got to know the incident of Danby's arrest.
- Group 3: Danby's reflections on the incident and how he plans to avenge the lady in red.
- Group 4: A dialogue between the lady in red and a fellow thief about how she conned Danby.
- Group 5: A dialogue between Horace and the lady at the Shotover Grange.

Use the given template for the comic strip:

